WE MAY ADOPT HIS SCHEDULE

A western editor has come to the conclusion that those desiring "pulls" in the paper must pay for them, and has established the following schedule of prices: For telling the public that a man is a successful citizen when everybody knows he is lazy as a Government mule, $2.70; referring to a deceased citizen as one who is mourned by the entire community, when we know he is only missed by a poke circle, $10.13; referring to some galavanting female as an estimable lady whom it is a pleasure to meet, when every business man in town would rather see the devil coming, $3.10; calling an ordinary pulpit pounder an eminent divine, 60 cents; sending a doughy sinner to heaven, $5.00.

MISS SALLIE M'CONNELL DIES IN EVANSVILLE

Succumbs Tuesday at Midnight Soon After An Operation Which was Performed
At Gilbert's Sanitarium

HAD BEEN A SUFFERER A YEAR.

There was many moist eyes and aching hearts in Marion and vicinity where Sallie McConnell the bright and interesting little daughter of our fellow townsman, T. J. McConnell, was known. When it became generally known that she was dead. The news reached Marion in the shape of a telephone message from her father, who was hastily summoned to her bedside Tuesday night, to her brother Walter McConnell the well-known barber. The remains reached Marion on the 3:40 train Wednesday afternoon and were taken to the family residence on Carlisle street. The interment will take place today in the new cemetery, due notice of which will be given.

Sarah Jane McConnell was born Sept. 14th, 1891 near Iron Hill in this county. She professed religion at an early age at Sugar Grove church near her old home. The family moved to Marion three years ago.

One year ago she was stricken with her fatal illness and has not been able to leave the house since. An abscess formed in her head and necessitated an operation. She was taken to the Gilbert Sanitarium, but this brought only partial and temporary relief. Her condition gradually getting worse it was decided by her physician Dr. W. T. Daughtrey to call a specialist and last Sunday week Dr. M. Ravdin, of Evansville, was here to examine her. He pronounced her condition precarious, and held out little hope to her parents. As a last resort she was taken to the Gilbert Sanitarium last Thursday. Her condition was such on arrival there that it was necessary to defer the operation until Monday. Although her sister Olive was there her mother, Mrs. McConnell, could not resist that mother love which appealed to her heart to be with her child when in distress and accordingly went to Evansville Sunday afternoon to be there when the operation was performed.

She stood the operation well and was thought to have chance for recovery until Tuesday afternoon when she had sinking spell which her physicians at once recognized as a serious turn for the worst. Her father, who had returned here last Thursday night with Dr. Daughtrey was notified and left on the mid-night train Tuesday night. The deceased is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Fred Lemon of Shady Grove, Mrs. Florence Handlin of Texico New Mexico, Mrs. Olive Husky and Miss Carrie McConnell of this city, also four brothers Messrs. Walter, Clyde, Marion and Charlie. Mr. and Mrs. McConnell have the sympathy of every one. For it would seem that they are having more than their share of trouble and affliction just at this time.

Geological Department.

Bulletin No. six has been issued by the Geological department of the United States government and chapter iv by F. Julius Fohs, of this city, on the clays of Crittenden and Livingston counties, is an exceptional good article, and will be read with much interest by all of our mining men, especially those interested in clay deposits. A copy can be obtained from the U. S. Geological department. The writings of Julius Fohs are much sought after by those who want reliable authority.

A Good School.

Miss Iva Hicklin closed her school at Going Springs Jan. 24th, the former half of the day was spent in regular school work. The noon hour was well served with a fine dinner. The afternoon was well spent in recitations, dialogues and music which was rendered by the pupils, and in which the audience listened with great anxiety. The day closed only to meet at the residence of Mr. Lriver for an entertainment given in honor of the closing day and the teacher's departure. The entertainment was well attended and enjoyed by all.

What Jim Hargis Hasn't Done.

While anxiously waiting for the rope to begin to draw upon Jim Hargis' neck, there are a few things to keep in view. Hargis has never sought to put off a trial; never evaded a summons, forfeited a bond or run away from the State in disguise or otherwise. He has fought hard for a trial on the very scene of his alleged crimes and this is the sum of his great offences in the eye of his persecutors of the press.—Somerset Journal.

CHAPEL HILL.

This community is moving off very nicely, while you understand tobacco has taken a move.

Chapel Hill school closed on last Friday, with a good crowd of visitors to here the speeches and dialogues, quite a good time was spent, dinner was spread on the occasion and everything was carried on pleasantly. Also some good music by Alvie Elder & Company. While I am glad to note that Miss Ida Hill has taught us a good School and she is to be honored for the satisfaction she has given the people and children of Chapel Hill. Also will say I never heard a word said against her as a teacher thru the whole school.

A musical entertainment was given by W. H. Bigham and daughter, on last Saturday night and a large crowd was present to hear Mr. Alvie Elder and his String Band perform on their Violins and Guitars while Miss Pearl Hill and Miss Ruby Bigham were in charge of the organ and every one present engaged in the music and plays.

Mr. W. W. Ward and family from Marion, was visiting in Chapel Hill Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Stella Hill and Ada Hugh, were the guest of Miss Ruby Bigham Sunday.

Misses Willie Clement and Pearl Hill was home from Marion school to attend the last day of school at Chapel Hill.

Miss Nellie Adams and Miss Ruth Hill, will enter school at Marion next Monday.

Mrs. M. G. Jacobs, is still no better at this writing her condition is very critical.

Mrs. Ida Enoch, will leave for Paducah this week to meet her husband there.
